

Retail Vendor Terms & Conditions

National Beagle Club National Specialty – 2025

MARRIOTT MEADOWVIEW RESORT - KINGSPORT, TN

Terms and Conditions of Vending at the 2026 NBC National Specialty

Prior to completing this application, Vendor must acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions.

- No vendor may sell goods of any kind displaying the logo of the NBC or the 2026 NBC National Specialty logo unless expressly permitted, in writing, by the NBC.
- General liability insurance is required to vend at the 2026 NBC National Specialty. Proof of insurance may be required prior to booth installation.
- Though the Host Hotel is staffed 24/7 and equipped with security, it is advisable to remove merchandise of significant value each evening. Neither the NBC nor the host hotel shall be responsible for lost or stolen goods.
- Vendors are responsible for the reporting of sales tax revenue. Tennessee requires Special Event Vendors to register with State, County and City Gov. agencies before the event. Documentation of sales tax compliance may be requested prior to the event.
- Vendor agrees to the aforementioned terms and conditions, and agrees to hold the National Beagle Club of America harmless from any situation arising from Vendor's noncompliance with such terms. The release and hold harmless agreement applies not only to the National Beagle Club of America but also to any of its directors, officers, board members, and volunteers affiliated with the 2026 National Specialty.